PRAYER FOCUS

Revival

The COVID-19 pandemic has sparked a growing interest in Jesus. Churches are reporting more clicks than ever before on their web-sites. And some church leaders believe this may be the early days of a revival of some kind. Please pray...

- That God will move powerfully in Ottawa through Christians and Christian organizations, sharing the gospel with non-believers.
- That the Holy Spirit will draw many to the "virtual" church services and outreach efforts in the coming weeks and months.
- That the Spirit will prompt us all, as believers, to talk about Christ with those we know and meet.
- That many will give their lives to Jesus as a result of the Capital Hope and other outreach initiatives.

SERMON QUESTIONS

1. Tell a story about a time in a human relationship when you had an 'aha' and understood the other person in a whole different light. How did that change the way you acted in the relationship?
2. Read Matthew 28:16-20.
In the course of a lifetime, our view of God changes as we consider scripture, acquaint ourselves with the multifaceted tradition of the universal church, ask questions and seek new understanding, and experience life. It is normal to develop new perspectives about God.
 - What new perspective did the disciples develop about Jesus in relation to God?
 - Why "when they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted"? (Verse 17)
 - If doubt is defined as "to waver or lack confidence," what good reason did the disciples have to doubt (waver, lack confidence)?
 - How did Jesus reassure them?
3. Describe a time in your faith journey when you had a perspective shift about God, and you wavered or lacked confidence as you tried to move forward in the changed relationship.
 - What were you afraid of as you saw and related to God differently?
 - How might Jesus reassure you?
 - How can you know when you are on track in your view of God? Or, when you are off-track?
4. What does it mean to be baptized "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit"?
 - If God is these three who are one, what does that tell you about God?
 - How does this "name" – Father, Son, Holy Spirit - affect and correct your view of God?
5. God as Persons-in-Relation – as Communion – is hinted at right from the beginning (see Genesis 1:26). You were made in the image of God. Jesus lived, died, and was raised from the dead to destroy all that mars God's image in you and restore you to bear God's image wholly.
 - If God is three who are one, and if we are made in God's image, what conclusions may we draw about ourselves as the church? How do we relate to each other, and to society at-large, in the name of this God?
