

July 10, 2020

Dear Friends,

You are receiving this short letter while I am away for a prayer retreat. I hope all is well with you.

Prayer is two-way relationship with God through Christ. Prayer is a lifeline, a way to seek support and encouragement and strength. It is “coming home.” If you are interested in growing in prayer this summer, a book that helped me thirty years ago and has helped ever since is Prayer: Finding the Heart's True Home by Richard Foster.

Sunday Online Worship Gathering at 10 a.m.

On Sunday, Pastor Matt Bellefeuille will give a sermon on the parable of the sower (Matthew 13) which is chock-full of rich meaning for us as we seek fullness of life.

For the Zoom online or phone link to the service, please reach out to the church office before 9 a.m. on Sunday morning.

For this week's scripture readings and other announcements, go to Sunday's bulletin.

July 22 and 29: “Being Enamoured with Jesus” In-person Prayer and Worship

Only ten days away! Please RSVP here to participate in one of two in-person gatherings, either on July 22 or July 29 at 7 p.m. in the church sanctuary. There is space for 48 people per gathering. Please plan to arrive 20 minutes early to enter and be seated, keeping physical distancing guidelines in mind. Please take time to read Sunnyside onsite worship guidance. Guidelines for gathering will change any time government regulations do. Our reopening team is working hard to prepare the space for us.

I look forward to seeing you in person.

With love and prayers,

Pastor Kerry Kronberg (with the whole team)
