Dear Friends,

[This letter was written a week ago. At the time you receive it, I will be in the middle of vacation, as far as I know. These days we are learning we can make no definitive statements about the future!]

I share with you the song I listened to on repeat as I prepared this letter: Psalm 90 \(Steve Bell\). This Psalm showed up in my morning scripture reading and I found myself comforted and encouraged as I prayed with the psalmist (verse 14): "Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days." There is a steadying work the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Love, does in our hearts that settles and satiates us. God is enough.

Sunday Online Worship Gathering at 10 a.m.

You will have the privilege of hearing from Gilles Doucet this coming Sunday morning as he continues our preaching series from the Gospel of Matthew. Please arrive online ready to hear the word of the Lord. God is always speaking. It is a pile of fun to hear God speak through a variety of voices in our community. Listen well! And when it comes time in the service to give voice to your own experience with God (as happens after the sermon), offer the gift of your story.

For this Sunday's Zoom link, please contact Pastor Miranda.

For this week's scripture readings and other announcements, go to Sunday's bulletin..

Thank you for your gracious friendship and partnership on the journey.

With love and prayers,

Pastor Kerry Kronberg (with the whole team)
