Dear Friends,

I wrote this letter before going off the radar for a week with my teacher husband so pardon me if something I say seems out of sync with life as you know it today. Things change a lot from day to day, eh?

There are things that do not change. Isaiah 40:28b-31 reminds us: "The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom. He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint."

Sunday Online Worship Gathering at 10 a.m.

We arrive at part three of a 7-part Vision series. Melody Bellefeuille-Frost will lead us to consider God's big story. It is a grand story mapped out from a garden to a city, in scripture from Genesis to Revelation. Sunday's text from John 10:11-18 will bring us around to focus on Jesus as centre point, again, as "the good shepherd [who] lays down his life for the sheep." The big picture narrative with Jesus as the absolute highlight has implications for how we understand God and how we live on earth day in and day out.
