Dear Friends,

This morning's reading included these words: "I keep my eyes always on the LORD. With him at my right hand, I will not be shaken." (Psalm 16:8) This does not mean we will not feel shaky. It does mean that we will not be shaken. As declared in the 19th century hymn, "On Christ the solid rock I stand. All other ground is sinking sand. All other ground is sinking sand."

I thank God for his presence and provision. One sign of God's attentive care for us is through the arrival of Abraham Shen and Nathan Huff, our two new pastors. Check out this picture of the whole team – incoming and outgoing - who happily met for the first time this past Tuesday.

Sunday Online Worship Gathering at 10 a.m.

On Sunday we will hear from the National Superintendent of The Wesleyan Church of Canada in a sermon titled, "But God..." There are many times in life when we think we've met the impossible but for God coming through with God-style intervention. Be prepared to be encouraged through Pastor Steve Elliott's message.

Please contact me for a Zoom link.

*Please join the Zoom meeting after 9:30 a.m. to avoid problems entering.

Farewell Parties

Over the next 10 days we will have one in-person and two virtual farewell parties for our outgoing staff members. Let's do our best to send our friends off in style knowing how much we appreciate them.

God is with us as we continue through the transitions of these weeks and months.

With love and prayers,
Pastor Kerry Kronberg (with the whole team)
