

August 6, 2021

Dear Friends,

This is the 74th Friday letter in a row. We've met 74 times for Zoom Sunday services. I have little to say today except may we continue to trust God. He is who we need. He is the source of our lives. His loving hands hold us. Let us join the psalmist (Ps. 88:9): "I call to you, LORD, every day; I spread out my hands to you." Every day.

We are the church. The church is the body of Christ. What does this mean for how we relate to one another and how we receive the gifts of God from each other? How will remaining in Christ affect how we are present in society? Let's live and learn.

Sunday Online Worship Gathering at 10 a.m.

August 8th is our last Zoom Sunday in the way we have known them. This Sunday we will hear from Paul Racine as he preaches a sermon titled "Don't You Care?" based on Mark 4:35-41.

Please contact me for a Zoom link.

*Please join the Zoom meeting after 9:30 a.m. to avoid problems entering.
For this week's scripture readings and other announcements, go to Sunday's bulletin.

On Eagles' Wings

I've been listening to On Eagles' Wings this week as a reminder of what is true. You may find it encouraging as well.

With love and prayers,
Pastor Kerry Kronberg (with the whole team)