Dear Friends,

Sundays Worship Gatherings: In-Person Registration (9 a.m. or 11 a.m.) or Livestream Link (11 a.m.)

This is our fourth Sunday in the sanctuary in person. We will complete our series on James' letter to scattered and hurting Christians. In a climate of suffering, there are things we can do to stay alive. We will see what James suggests. Hint: he doesn't think accumulation of wealth is the ticket; stuff rots. There is a longstanding heart posture and a few practices, however, that will keep us on our feet in life with each other with the Lord. I will be preaching, and we will celebrate Communion.

For a link to register for in-person services, please contact the church office.

Complete building entrance screening here before your arrival.

Here are our current guidelines for gathering in-person.

Or Join the 11 a.m. Livestreamed service online here.

When you click on the link above this will launch the SWC Livestream homepage. From there you may need to click the "Videos" tab to access this Sunday's Livestream.

Soon, with the arrival of new software, you will be able to see the scripture readings and words to worship songs in the corner of your screen while also viewing those leading in worship.

For this week's scripture readings and other announcements, go to Sunday's bulletin.

Prayer Gathering by Zoom: Tuesday, September 28 at 11:00 a.m.

You are welcome to send your requests for prayer to the prayer team. We will remember you.

Fall Opportunities to Grow as Followers of Jesus

Please check out the current version of the fall brochure to find out more about how we pursue friendship with each other and seek to live the way of Christ in everyday life. This is a working document with new details each week so check it out frequently.

With love and prayers,

Pastor Kerry Kronberg (with the whole team)
